At last it looks as though the dark and lowering clouds of incompetency, under which our people have been laboring and groaning for the past few months, were to be soon dissipated.

There is no better evidence of the popularity of a public house than the fact that the accommodations of the same are taxed to the utmost. Such is the case with the Commercial Hotel.

In defence to the fair sex, gentlemen should forego the pleasure of consuming the weed within the postoffice. To ladies and non-smokers such clouds of smoke is disagreeable and nauseating.

A portion of one of the water main ditches in the northeastern part of the city, by some oversight, remains unfilled, and being filled with water and snow, is quite dangerous, and should be attended to.

A number of new boxes, with combination locks, have been added to the city postoffice. If we only had some practical means of injecting some brain matter into his robustious incompetency's rotund hulk we would be pretty comfortably fixed in a postal service way.

CLOAKS, CARPETS AND MEN'S

CLOTHING AT COST! EXAMINE THEM. WHAT MORE DO YOU WANT?

THE EARTH? HAYDEN & CO.

The officers-elect of J. K. Barnes Post G. A. R. were installed, Monday night, Capt. H. B. Straut of Culbertson, being detailed to perform the pleasant duty: Department Commander A. V. Cole of Juniata arrived in the city on No. 1, and although too late to assist in the installation ceremonies, he made the closing moments of the meeting very pleasant with one of his stirring and entertaining speeches.

The sociable held at the residence of Mrs. Carl Clark, Monday evening, under the auspices of the Congregational Sunday School, was fairly attended, the untoward weather being taken into consideration, and a pleasant evening was passed with amusements of one kind and another. It is the aim of those in authority in the school to hold these affairs every fortnight. Also to make them profitable and pleasant to all who may see fit to attend.

SIXTY DAYS—Eugene Hall, the burly and cowardly Culbertson painter, who struck a fellow painter and townsman named White, such a brutal blow, last Friday morning, while both were under the benign influence of "red-eye," had his trial, in the afternoon, before Squire Colvin. Guilty was the verdict, and 60 days in the county jail the sentence, which, however, is suspended during Hall's good behavior. Hall is an old offender, and will be promptly jailed the next time he makes a break.

About the meanest, slimiest spawn of Tophet is the contemptible cur who seeks to defame God's purest and fairest creation—woman. But two week's since, we had occasion to refer to a brace of scandalous reports, which were being circulated, in a quiet way, through the city, to the evident enjoyment of the slime-mongers. Scarcely had the sound of these villainous lies died away on the fetid air, before another so-called scandal is let loose, from the same source, to run riot through this community to the detriment of the fair name of some of the participants, from our city, in the G. A. R. ball at Culbertson, last week. Ten to one this last report is baser, if possible, than the others, still a cloud of suspicion envelops them. The cowardly, skulking jackal of the jungle would come out of a comparison with the designing pimp who defames the character of a woman, as a lamb.

A SURPRISE COMPLETE—A large company of neighbors and friends of Conductor and Mrs. Frank Coy tendered them a surprise party, at their residence, last night, which was a heartily enjoyable affair in its every feature. The evening was consumed with cards, the art Terpsichorean was gently tripped, and an inviting spread of refreshments, provided by the surprisers, rounded off a full evening's pleasure. Among those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Kelly, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Pate, Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Colvin, Mrs. J. P. Israel, Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Spalding, Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Russell, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Kiser, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Jackson, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. H. Hitchcock, Mrs. C. H. Reed, Mrs. R. G. Mitchell, Misses Mary and Sarah Roberts, Lou and May Clark, Sarah Hogan, Mary Mella, Alice Tremaine, Mary Flood, Maud McConnell, Messrs. S. L. Malard, V. T. Thoman, Wm. Russell, O. E. Thoman, Ernest McConnell, Charles Davis, Barney Hofer, J. A. Mathers and Bert Tubbs.

Some twenty-five or thirty families will leave Piper City and LaHogue soon for points in the West, principally in Nebraska. We also understand that Herman will have joined the ranks of the noble Benedicti ere he returns. He will be absent about two weeks.

MARRIED.

SPRAGUE-NEWCOMB—January 20th, by Judge House of Hitchcock county, Mr. William H. Sprague to Miss Lucretia Newcomb of Red Willow county.

Saturday afternoon, the coroner's jury in the case of J. H. League decided to re-examine the body, as there were rumors afloat that the deceased had come to his death by foul means. The body was thoroughly examined but nothing was found to indicate that Mr. League had met a violent death. The report was evidently started for an effect and not that anyone believed murder had been committed. Mr. L. was a man without enemies, respected and esteemed by his fellow citizens, and though but a moderate drinker, no reasonable person will deny that his death was caused by the damnable drug, alcohol.—Culbertson Sun.

Harlan County Democrat: Mr. Brown, who has been in charge of the construction train on the branch has succeeded Mr. Faucou as assistant road master. Brown's jurisdiction extends from Hastings to McCook on the middle division, with the Oberlin line attached. * * Two hundred pieces of Oberlin express floated in on the depot boys Saturday. It was matter that had accumulated at Norton during the snow blockade and had to be brought here, transferred to the main line and sent around via McCook and the stage route. These goods were of every description.

The Inter-Ocean exclaims, "How the towns do fight to get a railroad. But that is nothing to what they fight a railroad after they get it!" The editor has, perhaps, been in Nebraska.
